Music Proposal

Over the next year, we'll be working with you on your wedding soundtrack. Building on our experience of what works and what doesn't, we'll guide in the repertoire selection process from closing guest arrivals to closing song.

Most of the suggestion acts below are open to learning new repertoire, so if you've got something specific in mind, let us know. While we'll try out best to accommodate your vision, we'll also be honest when we feel something won't work musically or is not possible.

Ceremony

9-piece vocal ensemble Asili, whose repertoire includes traditional African, hymns as well as contemporary pieces. The addition of piano accompaniment opens the repertoire up to instrumental pieces but there is also the option of playing backing tracks through the PA.

Marking this joyous occasion, Asili to end the ceremony with an impactful song, leading guests to the cocktails and canapes.

Reflecting an intimate ceremony, we suggest keeping the entertainment here minimal by featuring a solo guitar and vocalist such as Ethan Florus.

Reinterpreting and performing a wide range of songs from Drake's Hot Line Bling to Alicia Key's If I Ain't Got You, Ethan Florus brings warmth and soul to his performances in a refreshing way.

Pre-drinks

Leading the guests from the ceremony area to cocktails, we spoke about using African drummers. As guests arrive at cocktails, they'll be greeted by the Il Afro Suns Marimba band to which the percussionists who lead the procession will join. We suggest that the marimba band plays for 30-40-minutes after which Rus Nerwich will start DJing performing an Afro-electronic feature, livening up the tempo for the remainder of the event.

Rus Nerwich (DJ)

Hailing from Cape Town, saxophonist, composer, producer and DJ Rus Nerwich has established himself as one of South Africa's most creative and prolific recording and performing artists.

Crossing genres from jazz and funk to world music and neo-soul, Rus' style is diverse, engaging and constantly evolving.

Dinner, dance and party

While guests enjoy dinner, Rus Nerwich will DJ facilitating flow around speeches. We'd be happy to tailor this set to include intro songs for those family and friends who'll be giving speeches during this section or any other songs that you'd like to hear.

Then directly following your first dance, the dancefloor will be opened by Nathan Ambach as a DJ who will play for the remainder of the event.

Nathan Ambach: In 2006, in his hometown of Antwerp, Nathan launched the nightlife series: The Love Below as 'Your Monthly Rendezvous with Soul', where he is still the resident DJ + promoter of funky music worldwide.

He's DJ'd alongside Mark Ronson at the WMC in Miami and played at the Love Below with DJ Jazzy Jeff (The Fresh Prince), DJ Premier, DJ Maseo (De La Soul), and DJ Rashida – the official tour DJ of Prince and Bruno Mars and DJ'd sets in clubs and events around Europe, America, Asia, Africa and the Middle East. Added to the DJ we have the option of adding live instruments such as saxophone or trumpet creating depth and setting the tone for the rest of the event.
