PROJECT BRIEF

Your wedding is an intimate reflection of you and as such requires musical and creative attention. To authentically convey that feeling to the guests sharing in this momentous day, your musical input is invaluable.

Over the next year, we'll be working with you on your wedding soundtrack. Building on our experience of what works and what doesn't, we'll guide in the repertoire selection process from closing guest arrivals to closing song.

Most of the suggestion acts below are open to learning new repertoire, so if you've got something specific in mind, let us know. While we'll try out best to accommodate your vision, we'll also be honest when we feel something won't work musically or is not possible.

PRE-DRINKS

Building on the emotion created at the Chuppah, this period allows guests to catch up with friends and family while taking in their surroundings. The music during this time should animate/enliven those conversations not interfere or compete with them.

A DJ is a good alternative to a band for pre-drinks. Musically speaking, DJs have a broader range of styles and songs to choose from, allowing them to take the music where the guests want it to go. Ultimately this set must be upbeat, featuring songs that appeal to the majority of your guests while also representing your musical preferences.

This is achieved by playing a mix of classics from soul, jazz, reggae and current popular music. Added to the DJ we suggest includinglive instruments creating depth and setting the tone for the rest of the event.

DINNER & DANCE

Over dinner, given the space and the acoustics, we suggest having a DJ perform during this section, facilitating flow around speeches.

Then directly following your first dance, the band featuring Nathan Ambach on vocals, accompanied by saxophone, keys or guitar, bass and drums to perform high-energy dance set.

Touring and performing together for the last 6 years, Rus Nerwich and Nathan Ambach (N8N) have developed an electric onstage chemistry, offering clients an all-inclusive musical solution.

Both Nathan and Rus bring together 20 years of musical and performance experience. From world-class live performances of quintessential classics covering soul, funk, blues, pop and jazz to a dance till you can't dance no more DJ set, you are guaranteed one of the greatest parties of your life!

I've included a female vocalist in the budget but we can remove this if needs be. We also have options here to choose from, which we can discuss at a later stage.
