It is our greatest joy to work with clients in curating and producing a distinctive entertainment offering. Making music while taking care of business, you can be assured of a structured process which guides you in your musical decision making, bringing your personal taste to the fore and ensuring your event reflects who you are.

Music Proposal

Over the next year, we'll be working with you on your wedding soundtrack. Building on our experience of what works and what doesn't, we'll guide in the repertoire selection process from closing guest arrivals to closing song.

Most of the suggestion acts below are open to learning new repertoire, so if you've got something specific in mind, let us know. While we'll try out best to accommodate your vision, we'll also be honest when we feel something won't work musically or is not possible.

Ceremony

Right now, we haven't suggested any acts for the ceremony but we'd be happy to discuss this section in more detail should you wish. We can also stick to tracks played through the PA and use the pre-drinks entertainment lineup to mark the end of the ceremony in a celebratory way.

Pre-drinks

Building on the energy created at the ceremony and based on our discussion, the pre-drinks will set the the tone for the rest of the event. Using the combination of DJ and live instruments, the music during this time should animate and enliven guests' conversations not interfere or compete with them.

Rus Nerwich (DJ)

Hailing from Cape Town, saxophonist, composer, producer and DJ Rus Nerwich has established himself as one of South Africa's most creative and prolific recording and performing artists.

Crossing genres from jazz and funk to world music and neo-soul, Rus' style is diverse, engaging and constantly evolving.

John Hassan (Percussion)

The minister of percussion, which John Hassan has been referred to, is a highly acclaimed artist.

He has worked with Miriam Makeba, Regina Carter, Kyle Anderson, Toto, Hugh Masekela, Stimela, Chucho Valdez, Andy Narell, Jonathan Butler, Marion Meadows, Jimmy Dludlu, Judith Sephuma, Johnny Clegg, Caepha Semenya, Letta Mbulu, Moses Molelekwa, Manu Dibango, and Simphiwe Dana.

Added to the DJ we have the option of adding live instruments such as saxophone or trumpet creating depth and setting the tone for the rest of the evening.

Jamie Faull Is a Cape Town based saxophonist and percussionist that has been performing in the local and international music scene for the past 13 years.

Jamie is best known for his high energy sax playing and rather unique style of performance that brings excitement to every event.

Dinner

As discussed, we suggest taking a more relaxed, friendly approach with the dinner entertainment and feature The Rivertones during this set.

Led by vocalist and guitarist Roland Geoffrey Nair, The Rivertones delight audiences with their upbeat, joyful, eclectic, old-school reggae sound and have become Cape Town's most loved reggae band, performing regularly at venues and festivals across the city.

Party

Michael Sutton: An exciting and vibrant DJ who has a huge passion for entertaining audiences. Whether it be in a club, corporate event or wedding, Michael's versatile taste in music and ability to read a crowd will get the dance floor going – and keep it going!

Exposed to a vast number of musical genres by his parents growing up in Cape Town, Michael has found inspiration in the melodies of the 80's and 90's, as well as the pure instrumental sounds from the classical era.
