Music Proposal

Over the next few months, we'll be working with you on your wedding soundtrack. Building on our experience of what works and what doesn't, we'll guide in the repertoire selection process from closing guest arrivals to closing song.

Most of the suggestion acts below are open to learning new repertoire, so if you've got something specific in mind, let us know. While we'll try out best to accommodate your vision, we'll also be honest when we feel something won't work musically or is not possible.

Ceremony

As discussed in our meeting, the simplest option here would be to play through the tracks through the PA. The other option would be to include a Chazzan to play contemporary versions of traditional Hebrew songs. As per Cheri's suggestion, we've included Natan Sklair as a potential option. I'm waiting for Natan to send me updated references. As soon as he has I'll send an update.

Pre-drinks

A DJ is a good alternative to a live performer for pre-drinks. Musically speaking, DJs have a broader range of styles and songs to choose from, allowing them to take the music where the guests want it to go. Ultimately this set must be upbeat, featuring songs that appeal to the majority of your guests while also representing your musical preferences.

Pre-drinks

We could include an African highlight to the lineup, especially if some of your guests will be coming from overseas. For instance, as guests arrive at cocktails, they could be welcomed by the Il Afro Suns Marimba band. If we go for this option, the marimba band plays for 30-40-minutes after which Rus Nerwich will start DJing performing an Afro-electronic feature, livening up the tempo for the remainder of the event.

Rus Nerwich (DJ)

Hailing from Cape Town, saxophonist, composer, producer and DJ Rus Nerwich has established himself as one of South Africa's most creative and prolific recording and performing artists.

Crossing genres from jazz and funk to world music and neo-soul, Rus' style is diverse, engaging and constantly evolving.

Lee Thomson (Saxophone)

Lee played in the National Youth Jazz band has a Jazz Degree from UCT. Lee has played in South Africa's top rock bands such as Springbok Nude Girls, Golliwog and Hog Hoggidy Hog.

Horas

Welcoming the bride and groom into the reception area, Nathan Ambach on vocals, accompanied by band including Rus Nerwich on saxophone, keys, bass and drums, the band performs 15 – 20 minute traditional Horas set with loads of soul.

Additional options include adding a trumpet to the band line up or to reuse the African percussionists from the Il Afro Suns to lead you into the Horas.

Starlight Band - Horas Set

Dinner

While guests enjoy dinner, Rus Nerwich will DJ facilitating flow around speeches. We'd be happy to tailor this set to include intro songs for those family and friends who'll be giving speeches during this section or any other songs that you'd like to hear.

Another option is for a jazz quartet featuring Rus Nerwich on saxophone accompanied by bass, keys and drums to perform an instrumental set. The interplay between the different instrumentalists who feature on different songs, provides a variety for guests whether they are listening or not; stimulating the senses and keeping things fresh.

Dance

Then directly following your first dance, we'll open the dance floor with 6-piece band led by front man Nathan Ambach. The ultimate wedding & private events band features a lineup of celebrated musicians who have shared world stages with many great artists and entertainers.

So start your event from a musical point of view because at the end of the day no matter how great the venue or the food was, people are going to talk about the vibe and that’s where Starlight steps in, we can provide the perfect atmosphere from A to Z. Nathan Ambach to continue as the DJ for the remainder of the event.

Nathan Ambach: In 2006, in his hometown of Antwerp, Nathan launched the nightlife series: The Love Below as 'Your Monthly Rendezvous with Soul', where he is still the resident DJ + promoter of funky music worldwide.

He's DJ'd alongside Mark Ronson at the WMC in Miami and played at the Love Below with DJ Jazzy Jeff (The Fresh Prince), DJ Premier, DJ Maseo (De La Soul), and DJ Rashida – the official tour DJ of Prince and Bruno Mars and DJ'd sets in clubs and events around Europe, America, Asia, Africa and the Middle East. His Spotify playlists and online mixtapes represent his funky style, championing soulful music with great grooves and party hooks.
