Music Proposal

Over the next year, we'll be working with you on your wedding soundtrack. Building on our experience of what works and what doesn't, we'll guide in the repertoire selection process from closing guest arrivals to closing song.

Most of the suggestion acts below are open to learning new repertoire, so if you've got something specific in mind, let us know. While we'll try out best to accommodate your vision, we'll also be honest when we feel something won't work musically or is not possible.

Ceremony

Reflecting an intimate ceremony, we suggest keeping the entertainment here minimal by featuring a solo guitar and vocalist such as Ethan Florus.

Reinterpreting and performing a wide range of songs from Drake's Hot Line Bling to Alicia Key's If I Ain't Got You, Ethan Florus brings warmth and soul to his performances in a refreshing way.

Another great option to consider for the ceremony is solo guitar player and vocalist Lize Mynhardt.

Lize Mynhardt is a gifted, driven, and influential musician, spending the last decade writing and releasing her own songs. Born in Cape Town, South Africa, Lize was blessed with perfect pitch and has mastered seven instruments excluding her voice, making her a unique artist.

Pre-drinks

Building on the emotion created at the ceremony, this period allows guests to catch up with friends and family while taking in their surroundings. The music during this time should animate and enliven those conversations not interfere or compete with them.

We have several options that we could include here. A DJ is a good alternative to a band for pre-drinks. Musically speaking, DJs have a broader range of styles and songs to choose from, allowing them to take the music where the guests want it to go. Ultimately this set must be upbeat, featuring songs that appeal to the majority of your guests while also representing your musical preferences.

Added to the DJ we suggest including live instruments creating depth and setting the tone for the rest of the event.

Rus Nerwich (DJ)

Hailing from Cape Town, saxophonist, composer, producer and DJ Rus Nerwich has established himself as one of South Africa's most creative and prolific recording and performing artists. Crossing genres from jazz and funk to world music and neo-soul, Rus' style is diverse, engaging and constantly evolving.

Lee Thomson (Trumpet)

Lee has played in South Africa's top rock bands such as Springbok Nude Girls, Golliwog and Hog Hoggidy Hog. Other projects that he plays with regularly are Closet Snare, Mix n Blend, Valve State, Gavin Minter Septet, Dave Ledbetter and the Clearing as well as the Mike Campbell Big Band, The Jonny Cooper Orchestra and the Violent Femmes. He is also a prolific session musician, having done work for Freshlyground, Valiant Swart, Amanda Tiffin, Goldfish and many more.

Combining a 3-piece jazz ensemble - saxophone, bass and drums, with Ethan Florus on lead vocals and guitar, we open up the repertoire selection incorporating easy-listening jazz standards and more contemporary songs.

Dinner, dance and party

While guests enjoy dinner, a DJ will play selected tracks, facilitating flow around speeches.

Directly following your first dance, we'd open the dance floor with a music selection that caters to both young and old. Progressively, the DJ will take the music in more contemporary direction. We have two options for you to consider.
