Tones of Note

Music proposal – 5 December 2021

Your wedding is an intimate reflection of you and as such requires musical and creative attention. To authentically convey that feeling to the guests sharing in this momentous day, your musical input is invaluable.

In the months leading up to your wedding, we'll be working with you on your wedding soundtrack. Building on our experience of what works and what doesn't, we'll guide you in the repertoire selection process from guest arrivals to closing song.

Most of the suggested acts below are open to learning new repertoire, so if you've got something specific in mind, let us know. While we'll try to our best to accommodate you, we'll also be honest when we feel something won't work musically or is not possible.

Ceremony:

The simplest option for the ceremony would be to play selected tracks through the PA. Although we didn't discuss the ceremony, I thought it might be good to give you an idea of some options:

Option one: Instrumental duo

Instrumental duo to perform for the guest arrivals and processionals – the duo can be made from a combination of instruments including but not limited to cello, violin, guitar, keys and harp.

Option two: String ensemble

String ensemble including violins, cello and double bass to perform for the guest arrivals and processionals. We often add a female or male vocalist + keys accompaniment to the string ensemble. Doing so, expands the repertoire considerably while adding

We are unable to provide standard prices for vocalists as we like to get a feel for our clients' musical tastes before making suggestions. If you're interested in having a vocalist perform at your ceremony, please let us know and we'll send you a list of options.

Option three: Asili Vocal Ensemble

9-piece vocal ensemble Asili, whose repertoire includes traditional African, hymns as well as contemporary pieces. The addition of piano accompaniment opens the repertoire up to instrumental pieces and there is also the option of playing songs through the PA. Marking this joyous occasion, Asili to end the ceremony with an impactful song, leading guests to the cocktails and canapes.

He's DJ'd alongside Mark Ronson at the WMC in Miami and played at the Love Below with DJ Jazzy Jeff (The Fresh Prince), DJ Premier, DJ Maseo (De La Soul), and DJ Rashida – the official tour DJ of Prince and Bruno Mars and DJ'd sets in clubs and events around Europe, America, Asia, Africa and the Middle East.

Option two: DJ Rus Nerwich + Saxophone – 6 hours including lunch

Rus Nerwich's pre-drinks repertoire honours the classics by incorporating soul and jazz favourites, with upbeat contemporary tracks by Gregory Porter, Erykah Badu, etc. This set can be tailored to the clients' specific preference but will undoubtedly be upbeat and get guests to party later on, while not overwhelming conversations.

Here's an example of set that Rus DJed in December last year - Rus Nerwich - Pre-drinks set. Please bear in mind that this set was curated based on the clients' brief and also took into account event flow and guest sentiment.

Option three: Ethan Florus band to perform 3 x 45-minute sets followed by DJ

Reinterpreting and performing a wide range of songs from Drake's Hot Line Bling to Alicia Key's If I Ain't Got You, Ethan Florus brings warmth and soul to his performances in a refreshing way. Ethan performs in a few musical configurations but given the number guests and function, we'd recommend a trio or quartet for this set.
